HER MARRIED NAME

In WOMAN'S WHO'S WHO OF AMERICA, the practice has been to begin the biographical paragraphs relating to married women with the surname of the husband, followed by the maiden name of the wife in the black letter, and the married name in parentheses. Some exceptions have been made to this rule, but in most cases the reader consulting this book will find the particular name sought to be so classified, as, for example: "LOGAN, Mary Simmerson Cunningham," instead of "LOGAN, Mrs. John Alexander." This is one of many cases where the subject is most widely known by her married name, and for that reason the following index, reversing the order of the names, has been prepared to facilitate ready reference.

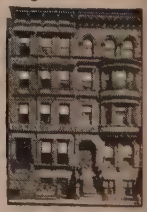
VIOLIN

OVIDE MUSIN'S VIRTUOSO SCHOOL

Recognized as the LEADING School of Violin Playing in the United States

OVIDE MUSIN, the celebrated Belgian Violin Virtuoso (formerly head professor of the violin department of the Royal Conservatory of Liege, Belgium), has permanently located in New York City, where his Virtuoso School of Violin has been located for the past five years, in which comparatively short time it has been accorded the proud distinction of being acknowledged the foremost institution of its kind in this country. Students taught by Ovide Musin in person, in his Special System of tone production, development of technic and control of the bow, and prepared for appearances in concerts in America and Europe. Summer Course for Teachers.



Ovide Musin's Scientific Course of Lessons in Violin Playing by Correspondence

Devised by this Master in response to popular demand for the benefit of violinists unable to come to him for personal instruction; for such these lessons will be found a boon, as they fill a long-felt want. In them Prof. Musin has embodied his Special System, which considerably shortens the time ordinarily required to learn to play the violin and accomplishes remarkable results. Enthusiastic pupils throughout the United States and foreign countries attest to the merits of this Course, and the value of Instruction by Correspondence when given by a supreme authority.

Prof. Ovide Musin's fame also rests upon his compositions for violin with piano accompaniment which have become world-renowned—notably his perennially popular "Mazurka de Concert." A catalog of Thematic Extracts from his publications which are appropriate for concert or teaching purposes, will be mailed free upon request. Address

OVIDE MUSIN'S VIRTUOSO SCHOOL OF VIOLIN, 51 West 76th Street, New York, N. Y. Dept. W. W.

THE STORY OF THE ARKANSAS TRAVELER is everywhere known and enjoyed, but from it alone many people have formed their opinion of Arkansas. It is an amusing bit of folk-lore. Every state has similar anecdotes. No state is judged by them alone. Arkansas should not be thus judged. We have some unprogressive citizens, but we have farmers who make two bales of cotton on an acre of hill land, rice farms that produce 100 bushels per acre, farm houses costing $10,000 to $40,000, and boys raising 135 bushels of corn to the acre. CONWAY, the town of the original Arkansas Traveler, now has as great a variety of good schools as any town of its size in the U. S. It has Hendrix College for men, Central College for women, the State Normal, a Business College, a Parochial School, and a good public high school. HENDRIX COLLEGE, with Carnegie entrance and graduation requirements, has $300,000 endowment, buildings and equipment worth $100,000, 15,000 volumes in library, twelve professors and 220 students. It seeks to be simply a first-class small college. It desires friends who believe in its ideal. It is in the foot-hills of the Ozarks, 30 miles from the Capital, among people who have sacrificed for it and cooperate to advance education. The town is progressive. Climate is salubrious. Surrounding country is attractive. Fruit growing and truck farming can be made profitable. There is room for a few more people who want to live in or near an educational community. Land is still reasonable. Cost of living is low. For information about College or town address

Going to build a boat?

Have you ever figured that a 70-ft. houseboat will give you every comfort that a 100-ft. cruiser can offer?

That it costs much less to build, much less to man, much less to maintain?

That it has a larger cruising radius, and gasoline consumption of half as much per m per hour as the cruiser with equal comfort a accommodations?

THIS 70-FT. HOUSEBOAT LANAI, sold through Messrs. Tams, Lemoine & Crane to Ex-Com. A. C. James, of the New York Yacht Club, has proved its superiority from New York to Florida, on inland streams and outside. Luxurious deck house; 18-foot dining-room and main salon; three staterooms, bath, galley—all heated by hot water, lighted by electricity.

Specializing on boat of 60 to 100-ft.

has taught us certain facts that every who intends to build a boat of such should possess.

Shall we give you the benefit of this perience? Write what you have in m building, and let us present the facts. let us send you our new booklet descril such notable houseboats as the La Calabash, Ibis, Nahmeoka, Lunaria, dona and Cocopomelo.
